for Children & Families

EVERY CHILD DESERVES A HERO

Children who experience trauma often carry its effects into school, relationships, and daily life. Trauma-informed care helps children feel safe, understood, and supported, allowing healing to begin and healthy development to continue.

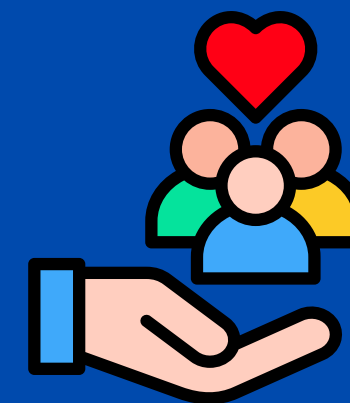

TRAUMA IN YOUTH

Trauma can affect a child's emotions, behavior, learning, and physical health

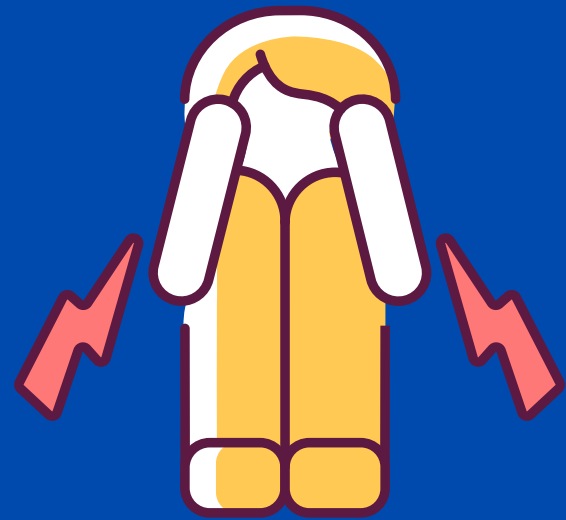

Trauma-informed care prioritizes safety, trust, and relationship-building

Early intervention helps reduce long-term challenges

A WHOLE-CHILD HEALING APPROACH

Trauma effects a child's nervous system, not just their emotions

Trauma can change
how children experience sensory input and the world around them

Effective trauma treatment address
the body, mind,
and relationships

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY (OT) AND MOVEMENT

- Helps children build confidence and independence
- Supports emotional regulation and daily functioning
- Uses play and movement to strengthen skills and learn the body's signals

Cutchins is committed to providing OT to each child we serve regardless of their IEP. This makes Cutchins the only provider in the nation with this level of care.

TURNING CARE INTO COMMUNITY

Every step supports our community and children's mental health.

Our work with the child's family and the community around them is part of our holistic approach

Cutchins uses movement and body based care to help children heal from trauma.

The Superhero Run and Fall Family Festival brings our mission into the community.

A family-friendly event that brings the community together in an event that supports children's mental health and strengthens our collective community.
